Cotton States Music Publishing, BMI

I'm working the Pool Hall -- I kiss the 8 Ball
I play the game known as chance

You know I'm red hot -- I'll shoot my best shot
So, get your money out your pants

You know I'll sink it – don't over think it
I kiss the 8 Ball with a glance

I'll shoot the creeper -- some call a sleeper
Like getting paid in advance

I'm working the Pool Hall -- Just being cool ya'll
You know I don't give suckers a chance

This here's your teacher – your games getting weaker
You don't stand a ghost of a chance

I'm working the Pool Hall -- I kiss the 8 Ball
I play the game like romance

You know that I'll sink it – don't over think it
This just might be your last chance

I kiss the 8 Ball -- $20 says it falls
So, get you money out your pants

I'll sink the pocket – smokd like a rocket
Do ya wanna see it again

You're acting funny – ain't got my money
Say that you don't give a damn
